

Fulfilling and Rewarding Lives Partnership
(Developing services for people with autism)

Minutes - 24th June 2014 - 2pm

The Rufus Centre, Flitwick

	ACTIONS
1. Welcome, introductions and actions/minutes from last meeting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Steve Minchington and Elizabeth Saunders welcomed everyone to today's meeting and apologies were given from Michelle Bradley from Bedfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group. • Steve commented that it was great to see some new faces and a significant amount of people with ASD in attendance • There was an outstanding action from the last meeting Action: Commissioners to follow up on the previous action about contacting the passport office. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Neil Tunnicliffe stated that it should be minuted that Sam also from the A-Team's full name is Samuel O'Neill and this should be reflected in future minutes. The A Team's email address is a-teambeds@outlook.com. • A letter has been sent out to the Job Centre Manager in relation to the problems that people have been experiencing. • Commissioners gave feedback from the discussions and voting at the last meeting. The priorities identified were decided for the next 3 years and in the voting at the last meeting the majority of people voted to keep meetings at the Rufus centre. 	Michelle Bradley

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A number of events happened on World Autism Awareness Day in April across the county. Locally a number of events took place, those were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Autism Bedfordshire organised a barn dance - over £500 was raised and Cricketer Alastair Cook came to the dance. ○ Central Bedfordshire Council encouraged staff to wear blue and donate £1 – The Council managed to raise £167 and this was donated to the National Autistic Society. ○ Luton Borough Council lit up the Town Hall blue ○ Bramingham Day Centre had an event which raised £500 which was donated to the National Autistic Society. ○ Bedford College held an autism awareness event and raised £135 ○ Samuel O’Neill from the A-Team also held a car boot sale and raised £70. The partnership board showed their appreciation by giving everyone a round of applause.
2. Hot Topics Bedfordshire Police Update: Bedfordshire Police provided an update about their training since the last Partnership Board. Autism Bedfordshire and the A-Team both commented on the training previously provided to Police Officers and one of the main comments was that it lacked reality. Bedfordshire Police have now reviewed their training and now offer a new training package. This training package will be delivered with the help of the A-Team. The first pilot session went well and there are plans to train a further 59 new officers in July and roll out the training to all frontline officers in August. By the beginning of September police officers will have been trained.

Autism Bedfordshire wanted to thank Bedfordshire Police for their commitment and partnership working There was a discussion about how the police will refer and signpost to other agencies, signposting people to appropriate agencies will be a key task and there are also plans for the force to use the AQ10 and refer people to the diagnostic service if appropriate. Action: Bedfordshire Police to keep the partnership board updated with training progress Elizabeth Saunders noted that there was a lot of good work going on across Bedfordshire and that the Partnership should look to showcase some of this good work. Action: Commissioners to explore how to show case the good work Diagnostic Service SEPT gave an update on the diagnostic service. There are receiving an average of 10 referrals and they are carrying out between 4 – 6 assessments per week. Approximately 50% - 70% of all referrals are diagnosed and signposted. The diagnostic service also a small caseload of active patients. The service will be interviewing for 2 support workers with a view to have the posts filled by August 2014. They are also advertising for a Psychologist and this post is currently being covered by a locum Psychologist. Action: SEPT to provide current statistics at the next partnership board.	Inspector Jeff Carter All commissioners Colin Parsons
3. Bedford College opportunities for people on the spectrum <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diane Lack introduced herself as the Autism Coordinator at the College. She explained that her job is to work with students with autistic spectrum conditions who wish to access mainstream courses. This presentation will be

available for all partnership board members with the minutes. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nick, a student at Bedford College, also presented and explained how Diane's work as an Autism Coordinator at the college helped him. He had support from Diane with his initial interview and enrolled in an engineering course. He found the support from Diane very helpful, in particular the support he had for his interview, and this encouraged Nick to get involved with mentoring and ambassador work. This work also helped him develop his people skills and now Nick is focussing on supporting and working with people on the spectrum in the future. Action: Bedford College to keep the partnership updated	Diane Lack
4. Autism Bedfordshire update <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Autism Bedfordshire gave a presentation to the partnership board on the work that they have been doing. This presentation will be available for all partnership board members with the minutes. • Autism Bedfordshire would like to encourage any people who have not yet completed the online survey to do so. Paper copies were also available at the meeting. So far the survey has highlighted the following issues: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ People on the spectrum are mainly living at home with their parents ○ Most people are not in paid work ○ Barriers that people on the spectrum have identified include social and relationship skills, people needing a greater understanding of autism and a perceived lack of medical professionals knowledge of autism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Autism Bedfordshire were available for people to discuss any questions not covered in the presentation during the coffee break and also if anyone had any further questions to contact Autism Bedfordshire directly.

Action: If anyone has any questions for Autism Bedfordshire that were not covered in the partnership board meeting please contact Chris Stelling at Autism Bedfordshire (chris.stelling@autismbeds.org) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Autism Bedfordshire also mentioned the work they are doing with New Horizons in Luton. Action: Autism Bedfordshire to report back on this and other areas of good practice at future meetings.	All Chris Stelling
5. POhWER update <ul style="list-style-type: none"> POhWER gave an update on the Voice Groups that meet in the Tavistock in Bedford and the TOKKO centre in Luton. They have a new worker called Yvonne who will be running the group in Luton. The Voice Groups now have a slot called “So What?” which encourages people to debate the work being delivered now and in the future. These discussions will be fed back to the partnership board on a regular basis There has also been a Hate Crime Session and POhWER would like to invite the Police to attend one of the lunch groups. Action: POhWER to contact Bedfordshire Police and invite them to attend a lunch group. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Voice Groups seem to be having a positive effect and POhWER have received a number of individual advocacy session requests Action: All to encourage people on the spectrum to attend the Voice Groups. For further information about how to get involved please contact Sandra Pearce at POhWER (s.pearce@pohwer.net)	Sandra Pearce All
