

Selective licensing public notice

Author: Private Sector Housing Enforcement

Contact: selectivelicensing@luton.gov.uk

Version: 2.0 (published)

Last updated: October 2023

Luton Borough Council ('the council') in accordance with Section 80 of the Housing Act 2004 ('the act') that the council in exercise of its powers under section 80 of the act has made a designation relating to selective licensing within the borough of Luton.

This designation was made on 25 October 2023, shall come into force on 5 February 2024 and applies to the Town Centre and Park Town areas of Luton. The full designation can be viewed at:

- town hall offices via Upper George Street reception Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm
- Luton.gov.uk – search selective licensing

The designation shall be known as The Luton Borough Council Designation of an Area for Selective Licensing 2023. All privately rented residential accommodation situated within designated area must be licensed with the council unless subject to statutory exemption. Licenses are valid for five years from issue and the designation expires on 4 February 2029.

The designation does not require confirmation by the Secretary of State as it falls under a general approval issued by the secretary of state under section 82 of the act, namely:

- The Housing Act 2004: Licensing of Houses in Multiple Occupation
- Selective licensing of Other Residential Accommodation (England) General Approval 2015 ('the General Approval').

Under the designation coming into effect on 5 February 2024 any person having control of, or managing, a licensable property without a licence shall be:

- guilty of an offence under section 95 (1) of the act
- liable to prosecution and upon summary conviction liable to a fine of any amount

A person who breaches a condition of a licence is liable to prosecution and upon summary conviction liable to a fine of any amount. Furthermore, Housing Benefit payments may be recovered by way of a rent repayment order as set out in section 96(5) and (6) and section 97 of the Housing Act 2004.

Contact

Any landlord, person managing or tenant wishing to seek advice on whether their property is affected by the designation, or for more information about HMO licensing, or to make an application, please contact:

- Private Sector Housing, Luton Borough Council, Town Hall, Luton
- Tel: 01582 546000 or email: selectivelicensing@luton.gov.uk